Centennial Musings.

[On the 4th of July last, "on a lone barren isle" in mid Pacific, a gentleman now in Honolulu composed the following spirited lines, which he entitles " Came too late for the Centennial," and sends them to the PACIFIC COMMERCIAL

In the history of the human race, A nobler deed you cannot trace, That what in '76 took place,

A hundred years a go. Twas men of mark, with nerve and will, That wrote on parchment with a quill, What did with anger monarchs fill, A hundred years ago.

Some copies of this document With all dispatch to France were sent, Which gave King George's anger vent, A hundred years ago.

Ship loads of venom quickly came, Commanding, in King George's name, That we submit, nor more complain, A hundred years ago. The struggle came, as come it must, When each man plac'd in God his trust,

For all they ask'd was fair and just, A hundred years ago. Then Freedom's torch with light did fill Each Patriot's breast-and does so still-

That blaz'd so bright on Bunker Hill, A hundred years ago. The royal troops in hellish pack Of bired assassins, white and black, Were worse than bloodhounds on their track,

A hundred years ago.

Immortal fame shall consecrate The gallant hearts that met their fate, Braving the royal idiot's hate. A hundred years ago

For there are names that will not die, That did the royal wrath defy,-They held commissions from on high-A hundred years ago.

VARIETY.

Brigham Young has reduced the number of his wives to eighteen, and feels almost as lonesome as a widower.

Some twenty years ago the Boston Post, in ailuding to Charles Francis Adams, who was before the people for an office, said: "The mantle of his father's greatness fell on him and smoth-

"The Single Scull Race!" exclaimed an old lady, as she laid down the morning paper : " My gracious! I didn't know there was a race of men

Nothing pleases a fly so much as to be mistaken for a huckleberry, and if he can be baked in a cake and pass himself off upon the unwary as a currant, he dies without regret.

"Let us continue our worship by listening to a piece of sweet music performed by the operatic quartet, who have been secured regardless of ex-pense," said the pastor of a fashionable church at a camp-meeting. M. D. Conway furnishes this prescription to prevent seasickness free of charge: "Let the voyager choose a good day, eat a good, late breakfast, and take some pellets of homeopathic coculus indicus,' and seasickness is very impro-

An imaginative correspondent of the Graphic says: "President Grant is like a matron whose years are rounded, her children grown, her vanity at rest, her beauty beyond unholy passion, and her repose unbroken by suitors, enemies, rivals or discord."

A northern Iowa farmer offered a tramp his daughter and half his farm for three days' work in the harvest field. The tramp wavered a little at first, but then the color of the girl's eyes didn't suit, and he thought the farm laid a little too low, so he declined the proposition, stole a hamestrap, and went on his workless way.

A person who was looking at a house the other day said he couldn't afford to pay so much rent. "Well, look at the neighborhood," replied the woman. "You can borrow flat-irons next door, coffee and tea across the street, flour and sugar on the corner, and there's a big pile of wood belonging to the schoolhouse right across the al-

A colored man hobbling along with the aid of a crutch halted a policeman in a Western town, and said, " I hasn't bin in this town long, an' wants some advice." "All right," was the reply; "Now, if I is walking along de street an see a fire, what mus' I do about it?" asked the newly arrived citizen. "Why, you must shout 'Fire! as loud as you can to attract attention." "Yes," " And then go to the nearest box and sound the alarm." "I see." "The steamers will speedily respond and the fire will be put out." "Dat seems sensible an' all right," mused the man, "but dere's one more quesshun." "Go ahead." "What salary does dey pay me, an' when does de cash begin to come in?" The officer made a further explanation, and the old man shook his head and responded, "Couldn't do it—couldn't think of it. While I was gwine frew all doze motions I could make two shillings sawing wood. Ize born into dis world on a cash basis!'

No LAGER IN TOWN .- A laughable incident is told of a German and his wife who visited Ocean grove the other day. Going into the ice cream garden the man asked for beer for two:

"Zwei glass peer."
"Eh?" said the clerk. "Zwei glass peer" (with more emphasis.)

" What is it you want?" "Peer! peer! Zwei glass."
The clerk failed to comprehend, and began to experiment by placing two plates of ice cream before the pair. " Ugh! take away dot shtoof! Ve vant peer-

"Oh! Lager bier, eh?" " Yaw-yaw! dot is right. Zwei glass." " We havn't any-don't keep it." "You no keep him? Vell, vere can ve findt soom-ch, mein frent?" "Nowhere. You can't get any in the place." Himmel! Dot vas awful places! Vat dime leafs de nexdt drain, eh? Coom on, Katerina," and without waiting for an answer they started for the depot.

ADVICE TO GIRLS .- An exchange says : Why will girls run away, and get married? We give it up, but we know a lot here that would be glad enough to stay at home, or jump at the chance to walk off and get married. The boys ain't around asking them as they did; takes more money to run one now-a-days than it does to run a steamboat, and they can see more fun with a steamboat. Ah! girls, its your own fault. Swap off your silks and satins for lawns and calicoes; shut up the piano and dive into the wash tub; throw away your fancy needle work and tackle a red hot stove in the kitchen. Instead of receiving Brown, the banker's son, in the parlor, keep your eye skinned for Bill Burns, the blacksmith's son, as he goes home from work; kiss his dirty face through a broken pane of glass in the kitchen window, and after a while, when he be an honor to your names and credit to themselves, die happy, and the angels will not turn

BREAKFAST. BREARF ASI.

BY A THOROUGH KNOW LEDGE OF the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutritien, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavoured beverage which may save us many heavy doctors' bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to attack wherever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nourished frame."—Bee article in the Civil Service Gazette.
